

PUBLIC WORKS & CAPITAL PROJECTS

RESOLUTION NO. 2015157

BOND RESOLUTION DATED JUNE 8, 2015.

A RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING THE ISSUANCE OF AN ADDITIONAL $353,500 SERIAL BONDS OF THE COUNTY OF DUTCHESS, NEW YORK, TO PAY PART OF THE COST OF RENOVATIONS TO THE DUTCHESS COUNTY AUTO CENTER, IN AND FOR SAID COUNTY.

WHEREAS, all conditions precedent to the financing of the capital project hereinafter described, including compliance with the provisions of the State Environmental Quality Review Act, have been performed; and

WHEREAS, by a bond resolution dated March 10, 2014, authorizing the issuance of $1,818,000 bonds for renovations to certain facilities, the County Legislature of the County of Dutchess, New York, duly adopted said bond resolution to include authorizing the issuance of $202,000 bonds of said County to pay the cost of renovations to the Dutchess County Auto Center, including original furnishings, equipment, machinery, apparatus, appurtenances and incidental improvements and expenses in connection therewith, in and for said County of Dutchess, New York, and

WHEREAS, it has now been determined that the maximum estimated cost of such class of objects or purposes is $2,171,500, an increase of $353,500 over that previously authorized, such increase being for work at the Dutchess County Auto Center; and

WHEREAS, it is now desired to authorize the issuance of an additional $353,500 bonds of said County for such class of objects or purposes; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, by the County Legislature of the County of Dutchess, New York, as follows:

Section 1. For the object or purpose of paying additional costs of renovations to the Dutchess County Auto Center, including original furnishings, equipment, machinery, apparatus, appurtenances and incidental improvements and expenses in connection therewith, in and for said County of Dutchess, New York, there are hereby authorized to be issued an additional $353,500 bonds of the County of Dutchess, New York, pursuant to the provisions of the Local Finance Law. Financing for said object or purpose was originally authorized, including work at the County Records Retention Facility, as part of a class of objects or purposes.

Section 2. It is hereby determined that the maximum estimated cost of such class of objects or purposes is now determined to be $2,171,500, and that the plan for the financing thereof is as follows:

- a. by the issuance of the $1,818,000 bonds of said County authorized to be issued pursuant to a bond resolution dated and duly adopted March 10, 2014 as described in the preambles hereof; and
- c. by the issuance of the additional $353,500 bonds of said County authorized to be issued pursuant to this bond resolution.

Section 3. It is hereby determined that the period of probable usefulness of the aforesaid class of objects or purposes is 25 years, pursuant to subdivision 12(a)(1) of paragraph a of Section 11.00 of the Local Finance Law, calculated from the date of issuance of the first obligations issued for said class of objects or purposes.

Section 4. Subject to the provisions of the Local Finance Law, the power to authorize the issuance of and to sell bond anticipation notes in anticipation of the issuance and sale of the serial bonds herein authorized, including renewals of such notes, is hereby delegated to the Commissioner of Finance, the chief fiscal officer. Such notes shall be of such terms, form and contents, and shall be sold in such manner, as may be prescribed by said Commissioner of Finance, consistent with the provisions of the Local Finance Law.

Section 5. The faith and credit of said County of Dutchess, New York, are hereby irrevocably pledged for the payment of the principal of and interest on such bonds as the same respectively become due and payable. An annual appropriation shall be made in each year sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on such bonds becoming due and payable in such year. There shall annually be levied on all the taxable real property of said County a tax sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on such bonds as the same become due and payable.

Section 6. Such bonds shall be in fully registered form and shall be signed in the name of the County of Dutchess, New York, by the manual or facsimile signature of the Commissioner of Finance and a facsimile of its corporate seal shall be imprinted or impressed thereon and may be attested by the manual or facsimile signature of the County Clerk.

Section 7. The powers and duties of advertising such bonds for sale, conducting the sale and awarding the bonds, are hereby delegated to the Commissioner of Finance, who shall advertise such bonds for sale, conduct the sale, and award the bonds in such manner as she shall deem best for the interests of the County; provided, however, that in the exercise of these delegated powers, she shall comply fully with the provisions of the Local Finance Law and any order or rule of the State Comptroller applicable to the sale of municipal bonds. The receipt of the Commissioner of Finance shall be a full acquittance to the purchaser of such bonds, who shall not be obliged to see to the application of the purchase money.

Section 8. All other matters, except as provided herein relating to such bonds including determining whether to issue such bonds having substantially level or declining annual debt service and all matters related thereto, prescribing whether manual or facsimile signatures shall appear on said bonds, prescribing the method for the recording of ownership of said bonds, appointing the fiscal agent or agents for said bonds, providing for the printing and delivery of said bonds (and if said bonds are to be executed in the name of the County by the facsimile signature of the Commissioner of Finance, providing for the manual countersignature of a fiscal agent or of a designated official of the County), the date, denominations, maturities and interest payment dates, place or places of payment, and also including the consolidation with other issues, shall be determined by the Commissioner of Finance. It is hereby determined that it is to the financial advantage of the County not to impose and collect from registered owners of such serial bonds any charges for mailing, shipping and insuring bonds transferred or exchanged by the fiscal agent, and, accordingly, pursuant to paragraph c of Section 70.00 of the Local Finance Law, no such charges shall be so collected by the fiscal agent. Such bonds shall contain substantially the recital of validity clause provided for in section 52.00 of the Local Finance Law and shall otherwise be in such form and contain such recitals in addition to those required by section 52.00 of the Local Finance Law, as the Commissioner of Finance shall determine.

Section 9. This resolution shall constitute a statement of official intent for purposes of Treasury Regulations Section 1.150 - 2. Other than as specified in this resolution, no monies are, or are reasonably expected to be, reserved, allocated on a long-term basis, or otherwise set aside with respect to the permanent funding of the object or purpose described herein.

Section 10. The validity of such bonds and bond anticipation notes may be contested only if:

- 1) Such obligations are authorized for an object or purpose for which said County is not authorized to expend money, or
- 2) The provisions of law which should be complied with at the date of publication of this resolution are not substantially complied with,

and an action, suit or proceeding contesting such validity is commenced within twenty days after the date of such publication, or

3) Such obligations are authorized in violation of the provisions of the Constitution.

Section 11. This resolution, which takes effect immediately, shall be published in full in The Poughkeepsie Journal and the Southern Dutchess News, the official newspapers of said County, together with a notice of the Clerk of the County Legislature in substantially the form provided in Section 81.00 of the Local Finance Law.

10. Bridges, tunnels, viaducts and underpasses. The acquisition, construction or reconstruction of or addition to a bridge, tunnel, viaduct or underpass, whether or not including the acquisition of land or rights in land, and whether or not including retaining walls or approaches thereto, of stone, concrete, or steel or of a combination of two or more of these materials, if the estimated cost of the improvement, as set forth in the resolution authorizing the issuance of obligations therefor is in excess of five million dollars, forty years; if the estimated cost of the improvement, as set forth in the resolution authorizing the issuance of obligations therefor is five million dollars or less, twenty years, except land or rights in land; land or rights in land for such an improvement, thirty years; painting as may be necessary from time to time for the preservation and restoration of a bridge, ten years.

11. Buildings. The acquisition or construction of buildings not included in any other subdivision hereof, whether or not including grading or improvement of the site, original furnishings, equipment, machinery or apparatus required for the purposes for which such buildings are to be used, as follows:

(a) Class "A" (fireproof and certain fire resistant) buildings.

(1) Buildings, the walls of which are constructed of brick, stone, concrete, metal or other incombustible material, and in which there are no wooden beams or lintels, except wood glue laminated structural members, and in which the floors, roofs, stairhalls, and other means of vertical communication between floors and their enclosures are built entirely of brick, stone, metal or other incombustible materials, and in which no woodwork or other inflammable material is used in any of the rough partitions, floor or ceiling structures, or

(2) Buildings, not more than one story above the ground, the outer walls of which are constructed of brick, stone, concrete, metal, stucco or other fire-resisting material and which are to be used as school houses by school districts wholly outside of a city, thirty years.

(b) Class "B" (fire-resistant) buildings. Buildings, the outer walls of which are constructed of brick, stone, concrete, metal, stucco or other fire-resisting material, twenty-five years.

(c) Class "C" buildings. Buildings which are neither class "A" nor class "B", as defined in items (a) and (b) above, including any such building which is rebuilt or altered so that it, together with any addition or vertical or other extension, is not fireproof or fire-resisting, as thus defined, fifteen years.

✓ 12. Additions to or conversion of buildings. (a) (1) The construction of an addition or additions to or the reconstruction of a class "A" building, whether or not such construction or reconstruction includes grading or improvement of the site, twenty-five years, except as hereinafter provided; the conversion of a class "B" or class "C" building into a class "A" building, whether or not such conversion includes grading or improvement of the site, twenty-five years. If indebtedness has been contracted or is to be contracted with a maximum maturity of over twenty-five years, but not to exceed thirty years, to finance the cost of acquisition or construction of a class "A" building and if more than twenty-five annual installments of principal on the indebtedness evidenced or to be evidenced by bonds or notes have not matured, then the foregoing twenty-five year period of probable usefulness for the construction of an addition to such class "A" building shall be increased by the number of years over twenty-five as there are unmatured annual installments of principal on such indebtedness which has been or is to be contracted for the class "A" building; provided that such addition is to be constructed to meet the construction standards of the class "A" building to which it is an addition. The maximum maturity of such indebtedness for the class "A" building shall be measured from the date of the bonds or from the date of the first bond anticipation note issued in anticipation of such bonds, whichever is the earlier.

one county, a duplicate original of such bond, approved by the finance board, or in the case of the city of New York the chief fiscal officer thereof, shall be filed in the office of the clerk of each county in which the municipality, school district or district corporation is located, except that in a city containing more than one county such bond shall be filed only in the office of the city clerk. The expense of such bond shall be a charge upon the municipality, school district or district corporation. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to a bank or trust company which has been designated as fiscal agent of a municipality, school district or district corporation pursuant to the provisions of paragraph a of this section, unless the finance board of such municipality, school district or district corporation, or in the case of the city of New York the chief fiscal officer thereof, shall by resolution determine that such bank or trust company shall be required to furnish a bond for the faithful performance of its duties as fiscal agent.

c. No municipality, school district or district corporation, or any fiscal agent thereof, shall charge, impose, collect, or receive from the holder of any obligation issued pursuant to this chapter, or issued pursuant to laws in effect prior to the effective date of this chapter, any fee or consideration for any services required to be performed by a fiscal agent pursuant to the provisions of this chapter. However, the holder of an obligation shall bear the expense of preparing new bonds or coupons which he shall request to be issued pursuant to the provisions of title five of this article, also the actual and necessary expenses for the mailing, shipping or the insuring of obligations incurred in connection with the rendition of services performed by a fiscal agent at his request. At least annually every fiscal agent shall render to and file with the finance board of the municipality, school district or district corporation, or in the case of the city of New York the chief fiscal officer thereof, for which he or it acts a statement of all moneys received and disbursed by such agent for the expenses mentioned in this paragraph. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, if the finance board of a municipality, school district or district corporation, or in the case of the city of New York the chief fiscal officer thereof, shall determine that it would be to the financial advantage of the municipality, school district or district corporation not to impose and collect such mailing, shipping or insurance charges, it may adopt a resolution directing its fiscal agent not to impose and collect any or all of such charges.

d. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the comptroller of the city of New York may prescribe rules and regulations for the registration, conversion, reconversion and transfer of the bonds and notes of the city of New York, including the preparation and substitution of new bonds, for the payment of the principal thereof, redemption premium, if any, and interest thereon, and for other authorized services to be performed by such fiscal agent.

e. Any bank or trust company acting as the fiscal agent of a municipality, school district or district corporation may bid for, purchase, acquire, hold, sell or dispose of obligations of the municipality, school district or district corporation for which it acts as such agent, and may enter into other service contracts with the municipality, school district or district corporation. No bank or trust company acting as such fiscal agent shall print, engrave, or otherwise prepare, new bonds or coupons required in connection with the conversion and reconversion of bonds as provided in title five of this article, if such bank or trust company acts as fiscal agent in such conversion or reconversion.

McKinney's Local Finance Law § 81.00

§ 81.00 Bond resolution, or note resolution or certificate, containing estoppel clause; publication and notice

a. If a resolution of a finance board authorizing the issuance of bonds or notes or the certificate of a chief fiscal officer authorizing the issuance of notes contains the statement referred to in section 80.00 of this chapter; such resolution after adoption, or a summary of such resolution, or such certificate after its execution and filing, shall be published in full by the clerk of the municipality, school district or district corporation or such other official or person as the finance board or such fiscal officer may designate, together with a notice in substantially the following form:

“The resolution (or the resolution a summary of which is) (or certificate) published herewith has been adopted (or authorized) on the _____ day of _____, 19____, and the validity of the obligations authorized by such resolution (or certificate) may be hereafter contested only if such obligations were authorized for an object or purpose for which the (Here insert name of municipality, school district or district corporation) is not authorized to expend money or if the provisions of law which should have been complied with as of the date of publication of this notice were not substantially complied with, and an action, suit or proceeding contesting such validity is commenced within twenty days after the date of publication of this notice, or such obligations were authorized in violation of the provisions of the constitution.

(Clerk or other official or person designated by the finance board or chief fiscal officer)”

If a summary of such resolution is published as provided in this section, such summary shall list the class or classes of objects or purposes for which the obligations to be authorized by such resolution are to be issued together with the period or periods of probable usefulness and the amount of obligations to be issued for each such class of objects or purposes, and in addition, such summary shall state an office of the municipality, school district or district corporation where the resolution summarized thereby shall be available for public inspection. Such resolution shall be kept available for public inspection at such office during normal business hours for twenty days following the publication of such summary as provided in this title.

b. However, if such resolution is subject to a mandatory or permissive referendum, or is submitted to a referendum by the finance board on its own motion, such resolution or summary thereof shall not be published together with such notice until it shall have been approved at such a referendum or, in the case of a resolution subject to a permissive referendum, until the period of time shall have elapsed for the submission and filing of a petition for a permissive referendum and a valid petition shall not have been submitted and filed, and such notice shall state that such resolution has been approved at such a referendum or, in the case of a resolution subject to a permissive referendum, that the period of time has elapsed for the submission and filing of a petition for a permissive referendum and a valid petition has not been submitted and filed, as the case may be.

c. If any bond resolution or capital note resolution does not contain a determination of the period of probable usefulness of the specific object or purpose or class of objects or purposes for which such resolution authorizes the issuance of obligations, there shall be published, together with such resolution or summary thereof and notice, the certificate of the appropriate body or official containing such determination.

d. Such publication as shall be required by this section shall be in the official newspaper or newspapers of the municipality, school district or district corporation or if there be no such newspaper or newspapers, then in such newspaper or newspapers having a general circulation in the municipality, school district or district corporation as the finance board shall designate.
