Wednesday, October 14, 2020

Time	Event Desc	Subject
1:00 PM	After this summer's successful Drive-Thru Senior Picnic series, the Office for the Aging is continuing to adapt events to social-distancing necessities. The latest OFA offering is a series of free 'Drive-Thru' Bingo events, taking place on the following schedule: Wednesday, October 14th - 1:00 - 2:30 p.m. - Bowdoin Park, 85 Sheafe Rd., Poughkeepsie Tuesday, October 20th - 1:00 - 2:30 p.m. - Dutchess County Fairgrounds, 6636 US 9, Rhinebeck Thursday, October 22nd - 1:00 - 2:30 p.m. - Thomas Boyce Park, 6420 NY 55, Wingdale In each case, the rain date will be the following day. You can reserve a spot at one of the three games. Because space is limited at each event to the first 60 vehicles, advance registration is required and can be made by calling OFA during business hours at (845) 486-2555. Drivers can bring up to 3 guests with them in your vehicle, for a total of 4. Masks will be required. Bingo numbers will be called using a low-powered FM radio transmitter - so be sure your car radio is in good working order, or bring an FM radio with you. Every participant will receive an OFA 'goodie bag,' and we'll play up to six games of Bingo at each event.	OFA "Drive-in Bingo"

Speaker Biography:

Deborah Lauter is the Executive Director of the NYC Office for the Prevention of Hate Crimes, a seven staff member unit in the Mayor's Office of Criminal Justice. Ms. Lauter was hired to create and lead the office in September, 2019, after a three-decade career of combatting anti-Semitism and all forms of bigotry, prejudice and hate.

Ms. Lauter served in a number of senior roles at the Anti-Defamation League (ADL), including as National Civil Rights Director and Senior Vice President for Policy & Programs, where she worked with tech companies on the growing problem of hate on the internet. She also supervised the Education division and its development of anti-bias education programs for students.

Under her tenure at ADL, the organization led the national coalition that secured passage of the Matthew Shepard, James Byrd Jr. Federal Hate Crimes Act. She also oversaw the organization's Center on Extremism, which included research and analysis on domestic and international extremism, and trained law enforcement on hate crime detection and response.

Ms. Lauter received a B.A. from UC Berkeley and J.D. from Cardozo School of Law. She is a member of the Board of Directors of The Olga Lengyel Institute for Holocaust Education and Human Rights (TOLIH), which provides Holocaust education training for teachers in the U.S. and Europe.

12:00 PM Dutchess County Parks is hosting a virtual public outreach event on Monday, October 19th at Noon as part of the first phase of the Lake Walton Preserve Parks Master Plan process.

Lake Walton Preserve Parks Master Plan
Virtual Public Forum

Register via Zoom to participate. Registration is requested, but not required.

Residents are invited to offer feedback and ask questions about the park's future development. The Lake Walton Preserve will conserve the property as a greenspace and provide a passive recreation venue with universal accessibility for visitors of all ages and abilities.

Each forum will include a presentation on the history of the site as well as concept ideas for the Preserve, such as an elevated pavilion with accessible ramp, a sensory exploration patch and classroom, boardwalks, and scenic overlooks. Additionally, the first phase of the Preserve's priority projects will be discussed including connecting the park to the adjacent Dutchess Rail Trail, constructing parking areas, and beginning design and development of a universally accessible loop trail.

American Sign Language interpreters from Mid-Hudson Interpreter Service will be available via Zoom for the hearing impaired and the archived forums will be available with closed captions on the County's YouTube page. Additionally, the October 19th forum will also be broadcast live on the Dutchess County Government Facebook page.

Dutchess County Calendar of Events

This class will look at a day (or night) in the life of nocturnal animals. Through imagination and storytelling, participants will learn about the park's true nightlife. The group will hear old stories and will have the opportunity to create their own story using everyone's imagination.

Prehistoric Life November 17, 2020

This class will explore the first people who lived at Bowdoin Park. Participants will discuss how Native Americans lived off the land and what they did for fun. During this class, the group will walk to the site of a 9,000-year-old rock shelter and touch Native American arrowheads, which were found at the park.
