Key Scope of Work Items

- 3.2.1 Maintain constant interaction with jail design team throughout the course of the design process.
- 3.2.2 Identify special populations by crime and type (youth, mental, health, etc.).
- 3.2.3 Design transition programming beginning in the correctional facility through release to the community.
- 3.2.4 Provide for potential re-admissions and eventual linkages to community programs (ATIs, etc.).
- 3.2.5 Evaluate current programs and transitions and make recommendations for improvement.
- 3.2.6 Review existing curricula and recommend modifications or enhancements.
- 3.2.7 Discuss coordination of efforts with stakeholders, including the courts.
- 3.2.8 Identification and assignment of targeted high risk populations to intensive programs.
- 3.2.9 The consultant must facilitate workshops on the final development of a model program for special populations.

Dutchess County Program and ATI Continuum

- What interventions are currently being used?
- Are these interventions evidence based?
- By what process or using what criteria are offenders assigned to various programs or interventions?
- Are there gaps in the present system?
- Are these individual programs part of a seamless continuum?
- How can we recommend a facility design to ensure that this process can be enhanced ?
- What are the key interventions needed in each part of the continuum?
