

Putting Your Skills Back to Work

OLDER ADULTS SKILLS FAIR

HOSTED BY

County Executive Sue Serino &
Dutchess County Office for the Aging

August 13, 2026

2-4 PM

John Jay High School

Dear Friend,

Thank you for attending our second “Putting Your Skills Back to Work” Older Adults Skills Fair, hosted by Dutchess County Government to help our local seniors find volunteer opportunities, part-time employment and other ways to stay connected!

Dutchess County’s older adults possess a wealth of knowledge and experience, and I know many are looking for a creative outlet to share their talents with our community.

We hope this event helps everyone here today — attendees and vendors alike — make connections that provide growth and opportunity for all.

Thank you to the Wappingers Central School District and the dedicated team at John Jay High School for hosting this year’s event! We are thrilled to continue our successful partnership.

I hope you meet someone new, today and get to explore new opportunities for your future!

Sincerely,
