ADDITIONAL COMMENTS
Annual Statement of Financial Disclosure for Calendar Year 2018
Marcus J. Molinaro, County Executive

While not required, since there is no apparent conflict, I offer the following comments for the sake of full disclosure in regards to my annual financial/ethics statement:

- 1) Until January 1, 2007, I served as both Mayor of the Village of Tivoli and a Dutchess County Legislator. From January 1, 2007 until January 1, 2012 I was an elected member of the New York State Assembly. These previous positions should present no conflict during my tenure as County Executive but if a potential conflict arises I will disclose it in full compliance with the law.
- 2) My brother, Justin Molinaro, is an employee of Dutchess County within the Department of Public Works. His employment preceded my service as County Executive. Further, I was and am not his direct supervisor but should any conflict arise related to his employment I will disclose that conflict and take appropriate action as advised by the County Attorney.
- 3) My sister-in-law (relative by marriage), Melissa Molinaro, is an employee of Dutchess County within the District Attorney's office. I am not her direct supervisor but should any conflict arise related to her employment I will disclose that conflict and take appropriate action as advised by the County Attorney.
- 4) My wife was an hourly employee with a professional firm which through competitive bid may be retained by the County of Dutchess to provide services to the Department of Public Works. Tinkelman Companies may be chosen pursuant to the process prescribed by the policy of the County's Office of Central and Information Services in conformance with Section 104-b of the General Municipal Law. My wife left employment with the firm in July of 2018, and had no managerial responsibilities or ownership stake with the firm. I have no relationship with this firm and neither I, nor my wife owns any stock or has any financial interest in this firm. I also further, in all instances recuse myself from the process which would result in the selection and oversight of the firm.

I hereby affirm under penalty of Perjury that the information stated is true, accurate and complete to the best of my ability.
