

COUNTY OF DUTCHESS

MARCUS J. MOLINARO
COUNTY EXECUTIVE

EXECUTIVE ORDER #6 OF 2013

I hereby issue the following Executive Order dedicating the Dutchess County Courthouse, located at 10 Market Street in the City of Poughkeepsie, to Judge Albert M. Rosenblatt in honor of his public service through which he improved and enhanced the shared quality of life and community character for the County of Dutchess.

WHEREAS, the County Charter provides the County Executive the authority to supervise, direct and control the administration of all departments as well as supervise and direct all internal structure and organization of every unit of the Executive Branch of the County Government (Section 3.02 b & d); and

WHEREAS, the County Executive thus has the authority to dedicate County facilities and assets consecrating them in recognition of an individual's record of accomplishments, commitment to service, and/or indelible mark on our communities; and

WHEREAS, in consultation with the County Historian, it has been determined that Albert M. Rosenblatt should be recognized for his public and private accomplishments which provided tremendous benefit to the people of Dutchess County; and

WHEREAS, Albert M. Rosenblatt, who earned his Juris Doctorate at Harvard Law School in 1960, served as a Dutchess County Assistant District Attorney from 1964-1969, Dutchess County's District Attorney 1969-1976, Dutchess County Court Judge 1976-1981, Justice of the New York Supreme Court 1981-1987, Chief Administrative Judge for the Courts of the State of New York 1987-1989, Justice of the New York Supreme Court - Appellate Division 1989-1999, and Judge of the New York Court of Appeals 1999-2007; and so now, therefore, be it

ORDERED, that the Dutchess County Courthouse be dedicated to Albert M. Rosenblatt in perpetuity at an effective date to be determined by County Executive at which time a plaque of gratitude will be placed at the facility bearing witness to the public service and accomplishments of Albert M. Rosenblatt; and further it is ORDERED, that, on behalf of a grateful county, Albert M. Rosenblatt and his family be presented a copy of this Executive Order.

Made this day the th26 of SEPTEMBER, 2013 at the Dutchess County Office Building, Office of the County Executive, 22 Market Street, Poughkeepsie, New York.
