

STATE OF EMERGENCY DECLARATION

A State of Emergency is hereby declared in Dutchess County, New York effective immediately.

This State of Emergency has been declared due to the impacts of the remnants of Hurricane Ida, which have compromised public safety.

The State of Emergency will remain in effect for thirty (30) days or until rescinded by a subsequent order.

As the Chief Executive of the County of Dutchess, I, Marcus J. Molinaro, exercise the authority given to me under Section 24 of the New York State Executive Law, to preserve the public safety and hereby render all required and available assistance vital to the security, well-being, and health of the citizens of Dutchess County.

I hereby direct all departments and agencies of Dutchess County to take whatever steps necessary to protect life and property, public infrastructure, and provide such emergency assistance deemed necessary.
