COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS

Dutchess County Commission on Human Rights Application Form and Instructions

The Dutchess County Commission on Human Rights provides an opportunity to continue to develop an inclusive and respectful community for all. There has been tremendous interest in the Commission's work and a process was developed for those interested in serving on the Commission. The Commission's Nominating Workgroup will guide the Dutchess County Commission on Human Rights Member Application process. The Nominating Workgroup includes members from both the Commission staff and volunteers and from County government.

The following are the Nominating Workgroups tasks and timeline. The Nominating Workgroup will:

- Review submissions: The committee will review all applications submitted by the deadline and identify candidates to interview.
- Conduct Interviews: Interviews of selected candidates will take place.
- Make recommendations: Commission member will make recommendations to the County Executive and Chairman of the Dutchess County Legislature.
- Applicant notification: All applicants will be notified within 30 - 45 days after recommendations have been made.

All appointments by the County Executive and the Chairman are subject to confirmation by the Dutchess County Legislature. This application may also assist the Nominating Workgroup in making inquiries concerning the qualifications of applicants for appointment. Please note that information requested in this document is public information.
