

Dutchess County Parks & Mountain Scout Survival School present a
FREE SURVIVAL LECTURE SERIES

Lectures are FREE and appropriate for all ages.
NO REGISTRATION REQUIRED.

All events are 7-8:30pm in the Community Center Auditorium at Bowdoin Park, 85 Sheafe Road, Poughkeepsie

10
SEPT

WILDERNESS SURVIVAL - THE BIG PICTURE

Discuss primitive bushcraft and wilderness survival vs. wilderness living, such as finding shelter and water, fire making, food foraging and tracking, and awareness/movement in the wilderness.

17
SEPT

URBAN EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS

Intended for those who reside in and around cities and urban areas. Learn what to do when an emergency or disaster occurs, including communication, building a preparedness kit, paths of travel/rendezvous points, finding resources, and how to ensure safety and security once you leave the city/urban environment.

24
SEPT

NATIVE NAVIGATION

Discuss how to move through a landscape without a map or compass, knowing direction vs. finding direction, the subtle signs of direction in a landscape, finding resources, direction indicators on trees, and how to prevent getting lost.

FOR MORE INFO, VISIT DUTCHESSNY.GOV/PARKS
OR MTNSCOUTSURVIVAL.COM