

Poor lighting conditions.

High pedestrian volumes from Bard College shuttle stop.

High collision rates in the area.

High pedestrian volumes from the college but no sidewalks or paths.

Hunting creates a potential hazard for trail users.

No available shoulders.

High vehicle speeds and no bicycle or pedestrian facilities.

Trails provide strong connection opportunity between Bard College and Tivoli.

... could be a possible ... or a paddle craft launch.

Trail conditions create potential hazards for hikers and other users.

Trail heads are hard to identify and lack amenities.

Poor lighting and visibility conditions.

Farm Roads throughout the Region can be used for trails.

High collision rates in the area.

Currently the shortest route from Bard College to Red Hook.

Lack of bicycle facilities to connect trails, parks, and Bard college.

Possible new trail opportunity.

Connection opportunity between parks.

Poor visibility along the corridor.

Possible connection opportunities.

There has been a local push for the Hucklebush Rail Line to be converted to a trail.

Sidewalks end and there are not any available shoulders for pedestrians or cyclists to use.

Poor visibility along the turns.

Large amount of bicycle activity around the bike shop.

Flat, low-volume route that is currently used as a time trial loop for Bard College's cycling team.

Sidewalks planned to be installed.

Opportunity to connect the trail network to Rhinebeck.

